

Objectives

BFTD is working for development of local and regional tourism. Some of our directors were Government key officials of National tourism organization, intellectuals and main stake holders of tourism sector. Our main objective is to promote our destinations, educating people- creating awareness, establish friendly relationship between neighboring countries, encourage people to tour, preserve nature, culture, heritage, archeology, socialization, assist government in making tourism policy, conduct research works, creating information highway between main stake holders of different countries etc. Help building tourism professionals and assist globalization process through development of tourism.